SECTION 8 - Privacy Legislation

1. Broughton Anglican College collects personal information, including sensitive information about pupils and parents or guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the College. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide schooling for your son or daughter.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the College's legal, census and government obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care. This information does not necessarily affect eligibility but is used to determine whether the College can meet the needs of your child.
3. Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information is collected. These include Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We ask you to provide medical reports relating to your child from time to time.
5. Broughton Anglican College from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes to other Colleges, government departments, medical practitioners, and people providing services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches and volunteers.
6. If we do not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of your child.
7. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. On occasions, information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and other news is published in College newsletters, magazines and on our website.
8. Parents may seek access to personal information collected about them and their child by contacting the College. Students may also seek access to personal information about them. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence.
9. As you may know, the College from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
10. We may include your contact details in a class list and College Directory. If you do not agree to this you must advise us now.
11. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them: that you are disclosing that information to the College and why; that they can access that information if they wish; and that the College does not usually disclose the information to third parties.
